

Molly Holeman

Molly Holeman, Trenton, Missouri, is a freshman at the University of Missouri-Columbia. She participated in Girl Scouts for 13 years and was a member of Troop #8096, Service Unit 821.

For her Gold Award, Molly worked with fellow Gold Award Recipient, Taylor Cox, to provide "Art to Wear" projects to their community. Through a series of projects, the girls provided opportunities to address art awareness. Girls participating in the Art to Wear projects completed numerous activities including t-shirt painting, face painting, bracelet making, reverse tie dying, head wreath making, paper hat making, and ribbon decorating. Girls in cheer clinic at a local basketball game wore the t-shirts that were created.

"By doing this Gold Award Project, I learned that I really love working with young children," said Molly.

Through her project, Molly was able to provide girls with fun activities that expanded their art awareness. The project helps Molly expand her organization skills and realize the importance of follow through when working with other groups.
